Meaningful Prayer, Engaged Learning, and Community

What do we stand for? Why do we struggle so hard to continue our independent existence and to preserve our unique identity? What is the heart and soul of Temple Beth David?

Each one of us may answer these questions in a different way, emphasizing different aspects of synagogue life and prioritizing different values. Even so, are there points of connection where our worlds overlap? I think there are.

I believe that we are about meaningful prayer, engaged learning, and community. These heart-felt beliefs permeate every service, every event, and every learning experience at Temple Beth David. And they did not originate with any one person. They emerged from the hands that built our Temple building, the people who took out second mortgages on their homes so they could have a synagogue, the time and energy of so many volunteers, and the voices of the parents and children who come to our services and learn in our Religious School.

Meaningful Prayer: Our Temple Beth David community is a house of prayer and a nurturing place that encourages mitzvot to flourish. Temple Beth David is the place where we address the spiritual strivings of our members every Shabbat. Although we preserve the traditions of our past, we also seek a higher purpose and meaning in life through the meditations of our minds, the prayers of our hearts, and the work of our hands.

Engaged Learning: Although we did not name ourselves the "People of the Book" (this term was coined by Islam, and adopted by medieval Jews), we all study and express our own "Torah" -- our own sparks of learning. In this context, "Torah" means all of Jewish learning, not just the Chumash (the Five Books of Moses). Study of and familiarity with our sacred tradition is the starting point for an engaged Jewish identity. Whether we learn through our chavurot, animated discussions at shul, or attending classes, it is incumbent upon all of us to make the traditions of our people come alive with a pressing relevance. Torah, while it is our unique, sacred inheritance, bears a message for all of humanity. Thus, our tradition of living torah informs both our particular identity and our shared humanity.

Community: Community includes our Temple Beth David members, the modern state of Israel and the entire people of Israel. A contemporary Jewish identity that does not serve its members' spiritual needs, relate to the State of Israel, and include world Jewry is somehow incomplete. To be Jewish means to understand our personal destiny as part of the historical Jewish narrative and the world-wide circle of concern.

January Schedule

Shabbat Evening: 7:30 p.m.

The next TBD Service at the JCC will be on Friday, January 28 at 6pm in the Senior Lounge.

Shabbat Morning: 9:00 a.m.

Sunday Minyan: 9:30 a.m.

Please remember to contact the Temple Office if you are considering scheduling any kind of event at Temple. This will help keep everyone informed and avoid scheduling conflicts.

We are handicapped accessible and equipped with a hearing loop.

The mission of Temple Beth David is to provide an environment where the concepts of community prayer, education, and service to the greater Jewish community are provided within the context of Conservative Judaism. We pride ourselves on being a friendly, participatory, egalitarian community, welcoming all to be a part of our synagogue family.

News from the President

Martin Presberg, President

A new year is a great time to volunteer, and Temple provides numerous opportunities for you to put your skills and interests to benefit the entire community. One of the easiest and most productive ways to help is to work Bingo one or more nights a month. Bingo remains one of our most critical fund raisers and our ability to make money is directly dependent on the availability of staff. I encourage everyone to give Bingo a try. It is more fun than you think.

Regular Bingo may not be for everyone. Perhaps you would like to spend some time chatting with friends and learning a new recipe while helping with baking or a Holiday dinner. There are regular opportunities to work in the kitchen, and if you are not feeling confident in your cooking abilities, there is plenty of clean up too!

Maybe you have some ideas about services. Ritual committee would welcome additional members to assist with holiday planning or think about new ways to increase attendance at services. Perhaps you have wonderful memories of your Jewish education and want to provide similar opportunities for our youth. Or you remember problems and want to help our school get even better. The Education committee can benefit from your ideas.

Do you think our congregation could do more in the areas of Tikkun Olam or Social Action? Events happen once a month, but attendance can be improved, and fresh ideas are needed to keep things going.

Do you feel that our Youth Programs should be a priority? Our Kadima program is strong this year, but we can use help recruiting a leader for USY. Do you have thoughts on improving our web site? Temple technology has moved forward significantly, but there is plenty more to do.

Do you want to learn about Temple promotion on Facebook? We have a page, but social networking can involve much more than event announcements.

The list goes on and on. Sometimes the biggest challenge is to find the fit between what you want to do and what the Temple needs. Fortunately it's pretty easy to get things started. Please contact me by phone or by email. We'll talk about what you like, and we'll brainstorm what can be made better. We need your help, and I am confident you will be glad to find a way to match your interests with temple needs. Let's talk.

There is much more to say and so very much more to do. Beginning on January 5th, I will begin teaching a monthly, mid-week Lunch and Learn class at Temple Beth David, where we will explore Jewish learning in its most inclusive sense. Throughout the year, we will also continue our monthly exploration of Jewish cultures across time and geography. On the fifth Shabbat in January which is January 29th, we will explore the spiritual and mystical milieu of Kabbalistic Sfat. And this year I am very much looking forward to reinvigorating a learners' minyan to engage as many of our voices as possible in prayer.

Our Jewish mystical tradition teaches that "God, Torah and Israel are one." When we join together to pray, study or engage in community activity, we invite God into our midst by seeking a higher truth and deeper meaning. That is what motivates and defines us. That is the essence and the commentary of our lives. That is who we are.

A Great Party happened here!! Thanks to everyone who celebrated the 7th night of Chanukah at TBD. We tried something different this year by having the dinner right after Hebrew School. What a convenience for families on the go, who could celebrate this night by relaxing and not worrying about dinner, while the kids had some extra time to hang out with friends. Rabbi Berg also challenged the children with a creative game of Chanukah Jeopardy. Thank you to those who helped with the baking, decorations and setting the tables. We couldn't have done it without you.

Plan to attend the upcoming Programs:

- January 9, Sunday starting at 10:15 am – Mah Jong Mania and brunch: Learn to play, teach someone to play, or just hang out and kibbitz. If you have a mah jong set please bring it. Plan to order your 2011 Mah Jong cards during this program. We will have the sign up sheets, so all TBD Members can order their cards together. If you would like to attend, but need transportation, please contact Karen Zivan: 385-8668. We look forward to seeing you.

- Look for news about hamentaschen for Purim and flowers for Passover. Please share any programming ideas you have with us.

NEED-BASED SCHOLARSHIPS AVAILABLE

The Foundation for the Jewish Community of the Jewish Federation has a limited amount of funds available for need-based scholarships only. These scholarships are available to Jewish students, having a permanent Rochester address, who are studying Jewish content for high school and college credit, and for Jewish teens who participate in an accredited summer, semester, or year long, Israel experience program.

Hanukkah Celebrated Worldwide by Servicemen

Keith Freedman, volunteer coordinator, TBD Soldier's Project kdfreedy@aol.com

This year's Soldiers Hanukkah Project was a tremendous success. Jewish soldiers serving our country in Afghanistan, Iraq and around the world celebrated the holiday with the help of cards and care packages from Jewish Community in Rochester. For the third year, Temple Beth David has coordinated the project which collected Hanukkah cards, decorations, baked goods and other items.

Over 500 handmade cards were created by students at the Temple Beth David, B'rith Kodesh, Sinai, Beth El schools; Derech Ha Torah, Etz Chaim and Hillel Community Day Schools and the Ora Academy. In addition, Temple Beth David members and the families of the students of the other schools baked cookies and cakes for the care packages.

In total 35 Hanukkah care packages were sent to Rabbi/ Chaplains and lay leaders serving Jewish service members as well as individual soldiers located in remote bases. Each package contained: Hanukkah baked goods, dreidles, chocolate gelt, decorations (including cups, plates and napkins), challah, grape juice and dozens of the children's cards. Menorahs and candles were sent to soldiers that requested them. Along with the care packages, more than a hundred Jewish soldiers received Hanukkah cards made by the children from Rochester.

The Hanukkah project is the latest in a year-round effort by Temple Beth David to serve Jewish soldiers both overseas and in the U.S. In 2010, Temple Beth David has sent care packages for Purim, Pesach and Rosh Hashanah.

If you would like to contribute to the Soldiers Project please send a check made payable to Temple Beth David (place Soldiers Package Project on the memo line) to the Temple at 3200 St. Paul Blvd., Rochester, N.Y 14617. To volunteer, contact Project Coordinator Keith Freedman at kdfreedy@aol.com.

Special thanks must be given to: Rabbi Aviva Berg of Temple Beth David and the principals, staff and students of all the schools that contributed to make this project such a success.

Hebrew School News

Joan Papkin, VP Education

Jjbp58@aol.com

Wow, the year is moving fast! For those lucky enough to be at the Hebrew School's entertaining plays last Sunday, they saw a wonderful show. Each grade level put on a short play to demonstrate different mitzvot that the Torah teaches everyone. There was a play about being kind and including others, and another about lighting shabbos candles. The Hineni class taught everyone a wonderful, new song, with our cantor, Sam on the guitar, about identifying with Judaism and other Jews. Every class did a wonderful job. Our children and parents, as well as members of the congregation, enjoyed a wonderful Hanukkah Dinner, sponsored by Sisterhood, on the eighth night, with delicious lakes, quiche, and doughnuts for everyone.

Coming in the next few weeks will be the annual art show and all the classrooms art projects will be proudly displayed in the social hall. Also, look for more information about the beautiful Havdallah program coming soon. It was a so successful last year that it is becoming an annual event.

Tikkun Olam

To the TBD Congregation:
Last year we were at a Bat Mitzvah at Temple Beth El. As part of the announcements they explained their "mitzvah of the month." We recognized that this is an area that TBD has not participated in fully in the past few years, so we decided to initiate a committee and some projects. We have collected food, #5 plastics, apples and school supplies; we have volunteered at the cemetery and at Food Link. Some of the projects have been well supported by the congregation; some less so. Honestly it is not clear that tikkun olam projects are a priority for this community.

For this month please respond to us (shelli.asher@gmail.com or marcy.berger@gmail.com) and let us know if it is important to you that we continue and let us know what project(s) you are willing to participate in for the upcoming year.

Thank you! Happy 2011!
