Machzor Lev Shalem Praying with a Full Heart

My father passed away on May 27th. He was a sweet, kind, generous man. In the wake of his death, I have found comfort and truth in the words of Menachem Mendel of Kotzk, "There is nothing so whole as a broken heart." I believe that the Kotzker Rebbe teaches us that, at times, it is through the experience of brokenness that we discover our potential to be increasingly spiritually open, sensitive, and alive to the blessings in our lives.

There is no greater blessing in Arthur's and my lives right now than your words of comfort, support, and acts of kindness. Words cannot convey our gratitude and thankfulness to all of you for your understanding and care. It is of immeasurable help in returning to day-to-day life.

Perhaps it is not a coincidence that on May 22nd, our Temple Beth David Ritual Committee unanimously voted for our community to adopt Machzor Lev Shalem for our upcoming High Holiday Services. Together with our familiar Yamim Noraim melodies, our new Machzor will enhance our High Holiday Services by blending prayer with study -- and adding historical context to our prayers, kavanot (meditations), and spiritual meaning. Especially important are the running commentaries that explain each prayer and the transliterations that will make our prayers more accessible to everyone. Even holding the elegant Machzor in our hands will enhance our Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur experience.

The way in which we will bring this beautiful, spiritual resource into our community is through the thoughtful donations of those who wish to honor and memorialize the lives of friends and loved ones who no longer walk this earth. My own Machzor will honor the memory of my father. Without solicitation, others have already stepped forward, committing to the purchase of two hundred (of four hundred) copies of Machzor Lev Shalem -- both for their personal, home libraries and for Temple Beth David's High Holy Day Services.

In order for us to complete the transition of our entire community to Machzor Lev Shalem, I invite and encourage all who can, to purchase this extraordinary prayerbook for your individual and our community's use. Temple Beth David will dedicate, in accordance with your wishes, every Machzor

News from the President

Martin Presberg martin.presberg@tbdrochester.org

585-794-3509

It feels like yesterday that Marcy and I were celebrating Nahoma's birth with food, song, and community. We wanted to share our joy with the people who play important roles in her development. It was a good idea, but we had no idea that it would all happen so fast. Now we are celebrating her high school graduation, and hoping that we have provided her with the knowledge, experience, and strength to take on her next set of responsibilities. If we have succeeded it is only with the help of family and friends who have joined and supported us every step of the way.

We share our joys and our sorrows, and we work together. This is the key to meaning and success as a family, as a community, and as a congregation. Milestones come and transitions happen whether we are ready for them or not. Temple Beth David too changes over time. Some of the changes are dramatic, others are subtle, and you only realize that something has happened when you look back over time. Ideally, we can pull together and plan for the future. But it is difficult for a community as diverse as ours.

There has been much discussion on our location and slowly shrinking membership over the past few years, but no consensus has emerged on the next steps of our community. In some ways, this is unfortunate. It will be easier to mobilize for the hard work when we have clarity about next steps. But in other ways, this period of indecision may be appropriate. We have a significant population of members with deep roots and commitment to our beautiful building as well as members for whom our current location is ideal.

The demographic trends in the community are clear. It is likely that we are going to need some combination of moving or joining with another congregation -- perhaps soon, or perhaps not for many years. Certainly, a more active strategic planning process is appropriate, but in the meantime, let us share food, song, and community with the hope and the faith that we are developing the knowledge, experience, and strength for whatever comes next.

We adopted Machzor Lev Shalem to make our High Holy Days more meaningful and joyful to all who enter our synagogue. Let us enter our Days of Awe by embracing the profound truth of the Kotzker Rebbe: "there is nothing so whole as a broken heart." And as the gates of heaven close at the end of Ne'ilah, let us emerge together from our individual journeys of transformation praying with full hearts.

Temple Beth David's July, 2011 Lifelong Learning

- Cultural Learning: In Tammuz we will explore the legacy of the Jews of the Ottoman Empire and Turkey
- Hebrew: Tutoring in T'fillah, Hebrew Reading, and Comprehension

In Tammuz (July 3rd - July 31st), we will explore the rich cultural legacy of the Jews of the Ottoman Empire and Turkey.

From July 10th - 18th, Rochester will celebrate the 11th year of the JCC Ames Amzalak Rochester Jewish Film Festival. The diverse films offered this year look to be engaging, thought-provoking, and uplifting. Pick up a brochure on the Shabbat table or download one at www.rjff.org. Organize film-going groups with discussions afterwards. We can all enjoy and enrich our summer with what our wonderful city has to offer, while at the same time supporting our JCC.

On Shabbat, July 16th, in our morning services and during our after-kiddush discussion, we will revisit some of the Young Turks, unique personalities, and enduring legends of the Jews who lived in the Ottoman Empire and Turkey. At kiddush, we will enjoy Sephardic cuisine of Turkey (and if we're lucky, Turkish coffee). Rabbi Berg will facilitate our community learning.

Tutoring in T'fillah, Hebrew Reading and Comprehension -- Call or email Rabbi Berg if you would like to join our T'fillah Group, begin or continue your Hebrew learning. Free of charge for Temple Beth David members. Tel. 585.319.4407; rabbiavivaberg@gmail.com.

Celebrating Shavuot

Helen Kashtan, VP Administration hkashtan@frontiernet.net

Our congregation gathered to celebrate Shavuot. The evening of study began with a delicious dairy/vegetarian supper and family-trivia session led by Bonnie Abrams.

Kelly Beller let an engaging discussion on how we can talk with our children and our parents about issues where it is difficult to understand each other's point of view. Our conversations touched upon many sensitive issues. How do we talk about feeling excluded from the lives of our children when we might not be on Facebook or other social media networks? What does it mean to our parents or our own sense of identity and self esteem when we lost our ability to drive safely? How can our social and religious networks create communities that address our changing needs?

Sy Zivan provided a learning sheet that focused our attention on identifying "the stranger" in today's world. Who are the people we intentionally or unintentionally exclude? Who carries social, racial or "other" vulnerabilities that, as Jews, we are to protect? Our conversations went down interesting paths -- from U.S. immigration policy, and racial profiling, to marriage rights issues in the Gay-Lesbian-Bisexual-

Transgendered community.

Bernie Roth and Gary Cohen presented an enlightened workshop on Torah leyning. They illustrated a specific (and well accepted) approach for learning various trope groups. Congregants were chanting Vayomer by the end of the session.

Thank you to Gary Cohen, Arthur Bernberg, Helen Kashtan, Lori Davis, Maxine Manjos and Pam Rosen, who prepared delightful meal. Thanks to Howard Kashtan for help with shopping.

Marcy Berger, Hebrew School Principal 271-3549 marcy.berger@gmail.com

Temple Beth David is looking for a teacher to work in the Hineni program which serves the 8th-10th grades. Hineni meets once a week on Sunday morning from 9:30 to 12:00. The program seeks to support post Bar/Bat Mitzvah age students as they work to define their own Jewish identities by discussing what Judaism says about issues that are important to them and by deepening their understanding of Judaism. We strive to strike a balance between age-appropriate content and fun activities. If you are interested in learning more about the position or know someone who would be a good fit, please contact Marcy Berger at marcy.berger@gmail.com.

Sabbath Prayer

*God of sunrises and sunsets,
God of Monday to Friday,
teach me how to slow down and enjoy
Saturdays and Sundays.
Teach me how to Sabbath-Teach me how to calm down
and actually taste the gift of a day off.
Teach me how to slow down enough to see all that I'm missing and to miss all that I'm seeing: those tiny things, those annoyances, that keep on wearing me down
day after day after day.*

*Help me to see people for their gifts,
instead of seeing them for their faults.
Help me to listen to the person I'm with,
instead of saying the same old responses
said in the same old way,
day after day after day.
God of sunrises and sunsets,
teach me how to relax and enjoy
Saturdays and Sundays,
so I'll be a better person Mondays to Fridays.*
