“When We Enter Our Sanctuary On Our High Holy Days”

I have had the pleasure of immersing myself in our new Machzor in preparing for our High Holy Days. I would like to share with you the wisdom and poetry of one of the writings contained in this beautiful book:

“This Rosh Hashanah, each of us enters this sanctuary with a different need.

Some hearts are full of gratitude and joy:

they are overflowing with the happiness of love and the joy of life;
they are eager to confront the day, to make the world more fair;
they have recovered from illness or have escaped misfortune.
And we rejoice with them.

Some hearts ache with sorrow:
disappointments weigh heavily upon them, and they have tasted despair;
families have been broken;
loved ones lie in bed in pain;
death has taken those whom they cherished.

May our presence and sympathy bring them comfort.

Some hearts are embittered:

they have sought answers in vain;
they have had their ideals mocked and betrayed;
life has lost its meaning and value.

May the knowledge that we too are searching restore their hope that there is something to find.

The mission of Temple Beth David is to provide an environment where the concepts of community prayer, education, and service to the greater Jewish community are provided within the context of Conservative Judaism. We pride ourselves on being a friendly, participatory, egalitarian community, welcoming all to be a part of our synagogue family.

News from the President

Martin Presberg martin.presberg@tbdrochester.org

585-794-3509

I love the fact that Rochester has such different weather from season to season. The changing of the seasons ties us to the natural world and reminds of the inevitability of change. Even as we enjoy the fruits of summer, the time has come to begin our thoughts and preparations for the fall, for a new school year, and for the High Holidays.

Every year the Holidays come and go, but each year is a little different. We change, we grow, people move in and out of the community. This High Holiday season will mark the end of an era for Temple Beth David. Cantor Sam Asher has tendered his resignation effective at the end of the year. It will be hard to see him go. Sam has played a central role at Temple for 20 years and many of us cannot remember Temple Beth David without him. But with every change there is opportunity, and it is my hope that we can all make the most of this change.

This High Holiday season will also mark a new beginning. With the acquisition of Machzor Lev Shalem, we have demonstrated our commitment to keeping up with the newest and best thinking of the Conservative Movement. The prayers will be familiar as will many of the readings, but there will be new readings and translations we well. And the book itself is quite handsome in both look and feel.

Temple's Hebrew School also has both continuity and change this year. We are soon to begin our second year with our own independent Hebrew School. The school will be slightly smaller with the graduation of a large class, but many of the staff is returning. There will be brand new history curriculum for 6th 7th grades to help give kids a framework to understand the large themes of our history, and the schedule has been restructured around blocks of learning time to give students a mix of group and independent learning. It should be a great year.

Major transitions, High Holidays, Jewish learning. There is a lot to think about with the temperature still well above 80. But something tells me the snow shovels are going to come out soon whether we are ready or not.

News from Hebrew School

Marcy Berger, Principal

271-3549

The first day of Hebrew School is Sunday, Sept. 11. Classes and registration will begin at 9:30. There will be a parent meeting at 9:45.

We are excited to announce our staff for the coming school year: Gail Vail (Sundays with K,1,2 and Tuesdays with 3,4), Ann Anderson (Sundays with 3, Tuesdays with 6,7), Eileen Goudes (Sundays with 4,5 and Tuesdays with 5), Dana VanWinkle (Sundays with 6,7) and Rabbi Eli Lowy (Sundays with Hineni).

We have lots of new ideas and energy for the school year-- it's going to be a great year! Watch this space for announcements from the school.

Remembering 9/11... Ten Years Later

This year marks the tenth anniversary of the September 11th terrorist attacks. The Greater Rochester community is invited to gather on the lawn of The George Eastman House (900 East Avenue) at 4:00 p.m. on Sunday, September 11th for, "Remembering 9/11 and Moving Forward Together." The event will be hosted by a multi-faith team and NextGen-ers who will share their reflections on how we can move forward with hope and compassion. Music, poetry, readings and prayers for all people will be included. All are welcome to come and bring a lawn chair. There will be additional community events at The Rochester Museum and Science Center on that same day.

More information to come.

Some spirits hunger:

they long for friendship;
they crave understanding;
they yearn for warmth.

May we in our common need gain strength from one another, sharing our joys, lightening each other's burdens, and praying for the welfare of our community."

Chaim Stern (adapted)

Perhaps we will all enter our sanctuary
with a mixture of emotions -- joy, sorrow, bitterness, loneliness, and gratitude. Then, we will begin to pray, to reflect, to sing, to renew ourselves,
to forgive and to be forgiven.

This Rosh Hashanah, may our prayers be heard, as we call out with a true heart, finding fulfillment in all that we seek.

Temple Beth David's September, 2011 Lifelong Learning

- Cultural Learning: Come and live the stories, struggles, and triumphs of everyday people in the extraordinary Land of Israel.
- Reflect, renew and rethink during Elul
- Learn and pray with the New Machzor:

Prepare to totally immerse yourself in this High Holy Days this year.

In Elul (Aug. 31st - Sept. 29th) we begin our time of self-reflection, renewal and rethinking, by considering how to become better people by becoming better Jews and by putting our resolve into action.

On Shabbat, September 13th, in our morning services and during our after-kiddush discussion, we will share the stories of the struggles, heartbreaks, and accomplishments of modern Israelis -- ordinary people, living in extraordinary Israel. We will focus on the cultural, environmental, and entrepreneurial accomplishments the people of Israel have contributed to the advancement of the world. At kiddush, we will enjoy an Israeli buffet. Rabbi Berg will facilitate our community learning.

Praying with the New Machzor: -- Mark your calendars for our final special learning session with our new Machzor: Machzor Lev Shalem. Our September learning sessions will be held at the home of Karen and Sy Zivan, 92 Tobey Court, Pittsford, NY 14534, on Tuesday evening, September 6th, from 7:00 - 8:30. Please RSVP to our Temple Administrator, Maria Dewhirst, if you are planning to attend. Tel. 266-3223; email office@tbdrochester.org.

Mazel Tov, Bar Mitzvah!

Avi Presberg is an 8th grader at the School of the Arts where he is a cello major. He has played cello since he was 4 years old. This past year, Avi earned his junior black belt in karate. Avi has spent the last 4 summers at Camp Seneca Lake. In addition to practicing cello, he also enjoys reading and spending time with friends from school, Hebrew school, and camp. We are very proud of all of his hard work and accomplishments. Avi will become a Bar Mitzvah on September 3, 2011.

What Not to Wear...

In keeping with the tradition of Kvod HaShabbat (Honoring the Sabbath) the standard of dress at Temple Beth David requires that Shabbat and Holiday dress for all participants be modest and dignified. We cannot give honors to anyone whose attire is not in keeping with this standard.

So what is NOT considered modest and dignified enough? Jeans, t-shirts, bare shoulders, midriffs and backs, and short, tight and revealing clothes of all kinds. Women are welcome to wear dressy pants if they like.

Everyone going on the bimah for an aliyah MUST wear a head covering. Men must wear a tallit; women are welcome to wear one if they wish. Please use the side stairs to approach and leave the bimah.

Temple Beth David is a welcoming community seeking to serve all Jews, regardless of their sexual orientation. We have purchased a monthly advertisement in The Empty Closet, the local newspaper of the Lesbian, Gay, Bisexual and Transgendered community, announcing our interest in service to its community.

The cost of this advertisement has not come from Temple funds but from members who have volunteered to donate in support of this initiative. We thank each and every person who has contributed toward the $60 monthly cost of the ad.

More contributors are needed as we look toward the second half of 2011 and continuing our message of welcome. Please call Maria at the Temple office or Karen and Sy Zivan (385-8668) for information on how you can help.

Green Tip of the Month

Batteries contain heavy metals which can leach toxins into our drinking water if they are left in a landfill. The biggest household battery recycling plant in New York State is in Victor. All alkaline and other household batteries (except car batteries) can be brought to Rochester Computer Recycling and Recovery, 395 Central Avenue (near the Amtrak station) during business hours. As of an April 2010 law, there is no fee for recycling batteries.
