

Temple Beth David's March, 2012 Celebration and Learning

We Are Never Alone: Love and Intimacy in our Tradition

Community and Connection: Celebrate Purim at our Persian Purim Banquet and Purim Carnival and welcome in Shabbat at our Kabbalat Shabbat service and Shabbat dinner at the JCC

In Adar (Feb. 24th - Mar. 23rd) we multiply our joy - through celebration, learning, music, and song!

We are excited about the new format for Shabbat Morning Services: For those of you who would like to engage in participatory Torah study, regardless of your knowledge level, join us from 9:00 - 9:45 a.m. every Shabbat morning. A little nosh will be provided to maintain our energy levels. Torah study will flow into P'sukei D'Zimra. At 10:00 a.m., we begin Shacharit, followed by our Torah and Musaf services. Kiddush should begin at 12 noon.

Community and Connection: Celebrate Purim at Temple Beth David - (check out the Purim Flyer). Join our fourth Friday night of the month for Kabbalat Shabbat and Shabbat Potluck Dinner at the JCC - enhance your spiritual preparation for Passover as we celebrate Shabbat through music and song and even raise our chametz to a new level of service. The food is always fantastic! (See p.9 of the Bulletin).

On Shabbat, March 17th, after kiddush in the Small Sanctuary, we will embrace texts on how our Tradition looks at love and intimacy. Rabbi Berg will facilitate our community learning.

Sunday Tefilah Learning: Sunday, March 18th: For beginning and intermediate daveners seeking to improve personal proficiency in tefillah skills.

Sunday, March 25th (for advanced daveners seeking to learn to lead services) - both classes will meet 10:30am - 12:00pm in the conference room after morning minyan.
