

Fourth Annual Skopitz Memorial Concert 2pm on Sunday, June 10, 2012

As we all know, music was a very important part of Rabbi Laurence Skopitz's life. Both as a musician, and as a supporter of other musicians, Rabbi derived great pleasure playing and listening to music. Before entering the hospital for his bone marrow transplant procedure, Rabbi Skopitz said in the event things didn't work out, that it would be great if an Annual Memorial Concert could be held at Temple Beth David. He smiled, saying it would be a terrific opportunity for people to get together at Temple.

We would like to fulfill his wish, and we invite you to help make it happen.
Keeping the Memory and the Music Alive

Since our premier concert in 2007, we have had three wonderfully successful events celebrating the life of Rabbi Skopitz. We invite you to join us again this year to enjoy music, memories, and support Temple Beth David, all things we know would have pleased Rabbi Skopitz.

For this year's event, we are asking you to help, either financially, with your time, or both.

Please join us as an official sponsor of the 2012 Rabbi Laurence Skopitz Memorial Concert, scheduled for Sunday June 10, 2012. We have an exciting concert planned that will feature CADENCE, a Canadian group featuring Rabbi Skopitz's nephew, Carl Berger. This is the same group that performed at the 2nd annual memorial concert. Cadence is a professional four member a cappella group. They perform extensively and have two amazing CDs.

Thank you for joining us in sponsoring this concert,
Davida Bloom - Chairperson of the Memorial Concert Committee
