Passover Thoughts to Accompany You Throughout the Year

One of the best things about being a rabbi is reading the diverse and wonderful insights from our ancient, is followed by dawn, that there is medieval, and modern scholars. I happily share one of the best pieces I read last year about the lessons of Passover (with modest adaptations). True to form, many modern rabbis quibble about both the details and major premises expressed by Rabbi Osher Jungreis. May you enjoy agreeing with and disputing him this Passover.

Rabbi Jungreis writes:

"If there is any one holiday that is of unleavened bread which is not special significance to our existence and gives us viable solutions to every problem it is Passover. Just consider:

Passover comes to remind us that it is the family that is the center of Jewish life. The Seder is celebrated, not in the synagogue. but in the home. And it is not a teacher who must impart our heritage to the child, but the parents who must answer the child's questions.

Passover teaches us that parents always had problems with their children. The four children of the hagaddah include the rebellious lives, our souls. It is written, "The child as well as the wise one. And the parents must relate to each of them, on each child's level, and to each child, the parent must impart our Torah.

Passover teaches us never to give up hope, that every darkness some purpose to our suffering, although the reason may elude our understanding. And so, even as our ancestors went forth from bondage to freedom, so we too shall ultimately emerge triumphant. We must only have faith.

Passover teaches us that the greatest stumbling block to the observance of the commandments is pride and ego, and so, there is a play on the words "matzos" and "mitzvos", for matzoh is the permitted to rise, which is, suppressed before it can flower and bloom. By disciplining and controlling our egos, we can absorb the mitzvot and make them the raison d'etre of our lives.

Passover teaches us that we dare not be complacent about our observance and commitment, but must search in the recesses of our hearts and souls to determine whether we are observing God's commandments fully. Even as we must search for chametz with a candle in the darkest corners of our homes, so we must search our candle of God is the soul of humanity."

News from the President

Helen Kashtan

hkashtan@frontiernet.net

Pesach is a wonderful time to recall our history, be with family, and enjoy special foods. I would like to wish everyone a Chag Pesach Sameach.

We were invited to submit a full grant proposal to the Farash Foundation for one of our three expressions of interest submitted earlier in the process. This application, called Shabbat Shuttle (and more), proposes to provide transportation to religious services and temple events for those who are unable to drive; we would operate this as a pilot program in its first year and move to the larger Jewish community for the next two years of the grant program. We hope to hear of our success in the next month.

You may have heard that Marcy Berger, our religious school principal, is resigning her position at the end of the school year. This was a personal decision for her, as she has returned to school to earn a Doctorate in Education. We wish her continued success with her studies and thank her for her dedication and success as our principal. We will be honoring her at a kiddish following Shabbat services in the near future (watch for details).

The Board, along with parents of school-aged children, is working to determine what our school program will be in the future. We are seeing fewer families with school-aged children and enrollment in our school is declining. Families and the Board want to ensure sound, creative and successful educational opportunities for our congregation's younger members. As we know more details, we will communicate this to the congregation.

I also want to thank our members for their commitment to our synagogue. We've had so many successes in recent months, from increased attendance at Shabbat services, participation in our weekly Shabbat morning Torah Study, wonderful potluck dinners and services at the JCC, amazing Purim events, and support of each other. What an amazing community.

Green Tip of the Month: Green Spring Cleaning Tips

While few of us enjoy cleaning, there's no reason to risk our health in the name of cleanliness. Making simple, green changes to your spring-cleaning habits can make big differences to your health, the health of the planet and your wallet.

1: Toss the Chemical Air Fresheners Spring is here and it makes us want to throw open the windows and breathe in the scent of fresh-cut grass. Unfortunately, all winter inside our homes we breathed in chemicals that have been linked to developmental and sex-hormone abnormalities as well as cancer. The culprit? Air fresheners. They're used in about 75 percent of U.S. homes, to the tune of $2 billion a year. This spring, consider tossing the chemicals and trying natural fresheners like baking soda or essential oils. Trade in the flowery-scented aerosols and freshen the air in your home with cut flowers. Or, just simply open the windows.

See tips 2 through 10 Here! http://tlc.howstuffworks.com/home/10-green-spring-cleaning-tips.htm

Passover teaches us that the Jewish home must extend hospitality to the lonely, the forsaken, the poor, and the hungry - that before the family gathers around the table, the doors must be opened to the stranger.

Passover teaches us that the agents of redemption in every generation are our women, for it is in their merit that our ancestors were redeemed from Egypt.

Passover teaches us that we dare not rejoice in the fall of our enemy, and therefore, as we mention the ten plagues we spill a drop of wine, for our cup is not full if others suffer.

Passover teaches us that even in the midst of exile, assimilation, and oppression; the Jewish people survived, for there were three cardinal principles on which our people would not compromise:

- 1. They never forgot their Jewish names, their identity or their heritage.
- 2. They never abandoned their distinct Jewish dress the tallit, the tefillin.
- 3. They never forgot the holy tongue, the language of the Jew, the language of prayer, the voice of Torah. (Please reflect on the Traditional and modern meanings of these principles and whether or not you agree or disagree.) those who have helped us.

  Finally, Passover teaches us the even as we were redeemed fro the first exile, so we shall once again be redeemed through miracles and wonders. The Hol

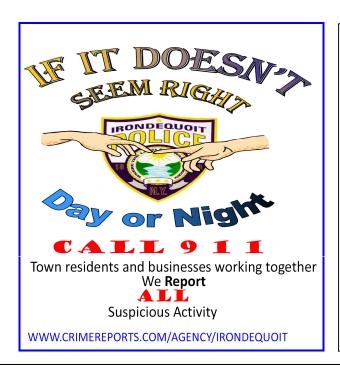

Passover teaches us that at the heart of all our laws is the commandment of gratitude. To this day we are called upon to give praise to God for having redeemed us from Egypt. Every Jew, in every generation, is charged with the obligations - to remember, to consider that if not for The Divine One's mercies, they and their descendants would still be enslaved in Egypt.

This concept of gratitude is the cornerstone of our religion. In order for us to learn the art of appreciation towards God, we must first learn how to express the same to our parents, to our teachers, and to all those who have helped us.

Finally, Passover teaches us that even as we were redeemed from the first exile, so we shall once again be redeemed through miracles and wonders. The Holy One, in infinite mercy, will gather us from the four corners of the earth and bring us home to our land, even to Jerusalem."

Arthur and I wish you Chag Kasher V'Sameach and spirited seder conversations!

Josh Freedman Eagle Scout Project

Over February's President week break, the Temple Beth David Hebrew School was repainted as part of the Boy Scout Eagle Project of Joshua Freedman. Joshua is a senior at Irondequoit High School and a Life Scout in Troop 220. For the past 2 ½ years he has been a madrich (student teacher) at the school.

The Eagle Scout award is the highest honor in Boy Scouts and requires the Scout to plan and complete a service project benefiting a local charitable organization. Joshua chose the Temple Hebrew School because of his close connection to the school as first a student and later a student teacher.

Working together with the school's principal Marcy Berger and the Building Vice Presidents Scott Davis and Ed Drexler, Joshua drew up a plan to address the areas most seriously in need of work.

Over the course of three days, more than 50 volunteers performed nearly 300 hours of work. Because of the incredible response, Joshua not only completed his original project but many additional areas were painted . The volunteers included Temple Members, current and former students of the school, Boy scout leaders from both Troops 220 and 356, Scouts from several local troops including Troop 220 and 154 and local high school students.

In the end 6 classrooms and all three entryways to the school were painted, the boys and girls restrooms underwent much needed repairs and repainting, and the Sisterhood room and the exterior of the Sisterhood Gift Shop was painted as well.

This project would not have been possible without the support and generosity of Black's Hardware which donated nearly all the paint and supplies necessary for the project. Joshua wishes to thank Irving and Todd Black for not only their donation of supplies but for all the time they spent with him making sure he had the knowledge to make the project a success.

Just part of the crew that helped! Thanks to all!

Youth Scholarship Opportunity Sponsored by Sisterhood

Scholarships are available to Temple Beth David's youth who meet the following requirements:

- 1. The candidate's family is a member in good standing of Temple Beth David and mother is a current member of Sisterhood.
- 2. The participant must be accepted into an educational program sponsored by a known Jewish organization, and can submit proof thereof.
- 3. The candidate is required to submit a written request to the Sisterhood Presidents no later than May 1 of the year of the proposed trip.

Sisterhood offers this incentive in the hopes of encouraging our youth to participate in these educational experiences, with the hope that the youth benefitting will be a positive influence on other youth to join similar activities. The Sisterhood Board will review all applications and notify the recipients of their scholarships.

News from Finance

Bill Fowlkes

This is my first submission to the Temple Newsletter since being confirmed by the Trustees as an appointed member of the Executive Board. First of all, I wanted to let everyone know that the short-term financial health of the temple is good. We ended 2011 on budget. So far this year our revenues are good and we are about on target for expenses, but the year is too new to discuss details.

Instead, I wanted to discuss a topic that is always a source of confusion, namely our financial accounts. If all you are interested in is the bottom line, you can stop reading now, but if you like to know the details, then stick with me a bit.

From a high level point of view, we have several separate bank and investment accounts, but most of our operations are financed out of a single checking account. (Of course, the Sisterhood and the Men's Club also maintain separate accounts.) The Temple funds that have bank accounts separate from our checking account are:

- The Rabbi Skopitz Youth Fund traditionally used to support youth programs such as Kadima and USY
- The Torah Repair Fund
- The Martha Fishman Education Fund – used to support children's education
- The Rabbi's Discretionary Fund
- The Herb Kraus Education Fund

The Capital Improvement Fund – this is our only account invested at Vanguard

We use our checking account for all the day to day operating expenses and also to track money flowing into and out of the funds listed above.

When members make a contribution and indicate a Fund to allocate it to. we write a check to the specific Fund that best matches the donor's intention. Today, I want to further elaborate on how we handle contributions to some of the above listed funds that are separate from our checking account.

USY/Kadima Fund was a line item fund set aside to help finance the TBD youth groups. This fund always had a negative balance, so to speak. Each year that Temple ran USY/Kadima youth groups, the costs far outstripped the donations. Because the congregation was invested in our youth, the USY/ Kadima groups continued each year, despite this deficit, drawing money from the main temple account...so it was paid for, in part, by people's dues Holiday expense.) and fundraising monies. Because a decision was made last year to consolidate all the youth groups under the Hineni umbrella, we are no longer using the USY/Kadima line item for donations. Beginning April 2012, all donations received for the USY/Kadima Fund will be allocated to the Rabbi Skopitz Youth Fund. The Rabbi Skopitz Youth used to support adult education Fund is a more general youth fund that can be used for a wider range of youth programming.

Likewise, the PreK Shabbaton Fund (also a line-item fund) was a fund set aside to help finance a very specific need: childcare during religious services. For several years, we had childcare provided on a regular basis to help parents enjoy services. This fund also had a negative balance for most of the time that it was active... meaning that in addition to the donations given specifically to the PreK Shabbaton Fund, additional monies were used from the general fund to help cover the costs. Again, because Temple's needs have changed, we no longer have childcare provided for congregants on a regular basis, except at High Holidays. We are making this fund inactive and beginning in April 2012, we will allocate any donations for the PreK Shabbaton Fund to the Marsha Fishman Education Fund, which is set aside specifically for children's education needs. (Note: High Holiday childcare will continue to be funded by the general fund under High

In the future. I will discuss the lineitem funds such as the David Solomon Building Fund and the Temple checking account. Our budget software, Quickbooks, shows line items for income and expenses so that we can track and report on those categories. These too are often reported as funds, but that will be the topic for another newsletter.

News from Administration

Judy Levy, VP Administration

585-249-5138

As I am adjusting to my new position as VP of Administration, I recently met with Maria so that I can continue to learn the scope of what goes on in the TBD office. Believe me when I say it can be overwhelming. One topic we discussed was event forms. Just to clarify, event forms are required if you need: someone to open and/or close the building; use of the kitchen for a specific event; assistance from others to set up. In other words when you need to rely on temple staff or volunteers to coordinate the event, you need to submit an event form. If you would like to hold a meeting or just need a room when the temple is already open, you simply need to make a room reservation by letting Maria know in advance. She will update the online Temple calendar.

It has been noted that there is sometimes a problem with the submission of event forms. One attempt to alleviate this problem is to send an email confirmation of the event form when you press "Submit". This way users may confirm the submission has gone through. We are hopeful that this will correct issues we are having.

Lastly, I personally really enjoy getting the Weekly News. It really is a good reminder of what is happening at Temple that we otherwise might forget in going about our busy lives. If you would like to submit information to the Weekly News, please have all submissions in by Tuesday of that week. Maria puts everything together and sends a draft to me to proofread on Wed. in order for her to send it out on Thursday. The Weekly News is only for those events happening in the following week or two. Longer term announcements will be printed in the bulletin.

If you have any further questions on these topics, do not hesitate to call Maria to clarify. She is a great resource.

L'Shalom, Judy

Cantorial Search Committee Update

Excellent progress is being made by the Cantorial search committee. A questionnaire was submitted to the Cantors Assembly Placement Office and in one week we received 4 responses. Responses have come from Israel, Minnesota, Virginia, and Argentina! All are excellent candidates and we are following up with each applicant to find the best fit for High Holidays at TBD. While we do have a couple of prospects (local candidates) for our regular Shabbat Services, we are focusing first on securing a Cantor for the High Holidays.

Sisterhood News– We need your help!

Many thanks to Jackie and Debbie for their leadership of Sisterhood. As their term comes to an end, it is a good time to reflect on the importance of Sisterhood to our synagogue community. Sisterhood makes our shul such a vibrant community. When I think of my mother's sisterhood, I think of all those 1960s stay-at-home moms running the temple kitchen and meeting for mid-day activities to stimulate their minds. (Book reviews and Ma Jong luncheons)

Nowadays, most women work, and don't have time or energy for even the "fun" activities. But Sisterhood (along with Men's Club) is the Make-it-Happen social backbone of our shul! They plan holiday celebrations, synagogue fundraisers and are always coming up with ideas for community fun.

Without them, there would be no Chanukah party, no synagogue calendars (a huge fund-raiser and helpful organizer), no gift shop and less celebrating. The TBD Sisterhood was responsible for our shul becoming egalitarian in 1978, and to this day is affiliated with the Women's League for Conservative Judaism, a progressive Jewish women's movement.

So please consider taking over Sisterhood leadership or at least getting more involved, and help us keep our synagogue community as engaging as we'd like. Can you help?

Nisan (March 24th - April 22nd) is a month that carries us from the heights of freedom, to the depths of The Shoah, the silence of Yom Ha'Zikaron and the celebration of Yom Ha'Atzmaut.

Community and Connection: This year the first and eighth days of Passover fall on Shabbat. Our Torah study and Shabbat services will blend the special flavors and connections between Shabbat and Pesach. Join the Rochester Jewish Community at the Yom HaShoah commemoration on Wednesday evening, April 18th. Celebrate Yom Ha'Atzmaut as we welcome in Shabbat at our fourth Friday night of the month Kabbalat Shabbat and Community Potluck Dinner at the JCC. Enjoy a musical Kabbalat Shabbat service followed by a delicious Israeli and Middle Eastern Buffet. (See p.11 for details).

On Shabbat and the Eighth Day of Passover, April 14th, after kiddush in the Small Sanctuary, we will study and discuss what Judaism teaches us about being truly free. For what purpose were we redeemed from the narrowness of multiple forms of slavery? Is freedom an ultimate good, a state of mind or an ambiguous and insecure form of existence? Rabbi Berg will facilitate our community learning and discussion.

BBYO is giving up to $2,000 to teens with demonstrated financial need who wish to experience Israel this summer. As of today, we still have approximately $25,000 to distribute in Milk & Honey Israel Scholarship funds for summer 2012. These funds are open to ALL Jewish teens regardless of affiliation and membership in BBYO is not a requirement. Funding allocations are being made on a rolling basis and subject to availability. Please encourage prospective teens to apply now.
