Continuing to Blossom in the Summer

We have all seen both new and familiar faces on the bimah over the past few months. Just as we celebrate the hiring of a vibrant young Hazzan from Buenos Aires for our High Holiday services, we honor and celebrate the inspiring and talented individuals within our own community who have stepped up to lead our Shabbat and Sunday morning services. Although it is always a risk to try to name everyone, I will make the attempt to thank all of these wonderful people who have shared their voices, their efforts, and their kavannah, and who have infused an animating ruach into our prayers. Thank you, Ron Brandwein, Lisa Klein, Bill Gertzog, Ellen Gertzog, Gary Cohen, Ayala Emmett, Bernie Roth, Nancy Kraus, Andrew Berger, Ceidlen Beller, Scott Davis, Bonnie Abrams, Jonathan Papkin, Martin Yesowitch, David Kaufman, Pam Rosen, Philip Katzman, Avi Presberg, Maxine Manjos, David Kaufman, Marjory David, Lewis Rothberg, Cindy Halpern, Judy Levy, the children in our Hebrew School, all of our terrific Torah readers and anyone whose name I have inadvertently omitted or who is a work in process, preparing right now to share their neshamah with us in this beautiful way. Thank you also to Howard Brill for stepping forward to lead a Torah Study discussion about which people are still talking!

Last month we witnessed a flowering in our Torah Study discussion group.

The question, "who are we commanded to love as ourself" resonated deeply within the twenty or more people who came to Torah Study one Shabbat morning in May. Inclining towards interpreting Torah to require us to love those who are in our kehillah kedoshah, the sacred community that so very many of us are trying to sustain, nurture and grow, I vied for interpreting "ve'ahavtah le'reiahchah, ke'mochah," love your neighbor as yourself, to direct us to love those with whom we live, learn, eat, pray, and share an intimate bond. I believe this because it is sometimes the most difficult to love and express gratitude to those with whom we interact on a regular basis and in a personal way. It is easy to profess an idealistic love for each and every member of humanity, but sometimes not so easy to relate in a loving way to those whose humanness we have witnessed and experienced first hand.

As members of a sacred community, may we continue to blossom in the summer months, through davening, teaching, educating our children, and planning for our holidays and our future. May we always remember to open our hearts to our own and others' vulnerabilities as we recognize and encourage each others' strengths. May we continue to live by the philosophy with which Arthur and I were greeted almost three years ago:

News from the President

Helen Kashtan

hkashtan@frontiernet.net

We are pleased to announce that Temple has hired a Cantor for the High Holy Days, Gabriel Fleischer. Hazzan Fleischer is a third-generation Hazzan from Buenos Aires, Argentina. He has previously served as a High Holiday Cantor for other congregations, including five years at an Albany shul. Hazzan Fleischer will arrive in Rochester a few days before the holidays to finalize coordination with Rabbi Berg. Because of the distance he will travel, he will stay in Rochester between Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur.

Chazzan Fleischer, like other candidates, provided audio files demonstrating his singing voice. During the interview process it became apparent that he enjoys collaboration with rabbis on and off the bimah and is extremely receptive congregant participation. His style is a lot Ashkenazic and with little bit of Sephardic influence.

Thank you to the Cantorial Search Committee for its diligent and thoughtful work in seeking candidates, conducting reference checks, and holding interviews. The committee used input from the congregational survey to establish criteria for its process to evaluate candidates. Rabbi Berg conducted telephone interviews with each candidate who was selected for an interview by the committee, and then the committee conducted interviews via Skype. This tool served as a great way to connect with candidates ... from the US or abroad.

Cantorial Search Committee: Judy Levy, Rabbi Berg, Lisa Klein, Jonathan Papkin, Maxine Manjos, Scott Bauman, Allison Helms, and Annette Shapiro. The committee engaged the Ritual Committee for the interviews and selection. The committee will resume meeting to discuss cantorial needs and options post-High Holidays.

"May our Doorway

May the door of this synagogue be wide enough to receive all who hunger for love, all who are lonely for fellowship.

May it welcome all who have cares to unburden, thanks to express, hopes to nurture.

May the door of this synagogue be narrow enough to shut out pettiness

May its threshold be no stumbling block

May it be too high to admit complacency, selfishness, and

May this synagogue be, for all who

Financial News: Fund or Budget Category?

Bill Fowlkes, VP Finance

wmyfowlkes@yahoo.com

In April's newsletter, I mentioned the separate bank accounts that we keep some of our funds in such as the Martha Fishman Education Fund and the Rabbi Skopitz Youth Fund. I also mentioned that these are exceptional cases, most of our operations are financed out of a single checking account. The special funds with separate bank accounts have relatively small balances and very few transactions. Our checking account is much more active.

We track all that activity using an accounting software package called Quickbooks. Quickbooks allows us to track line items for income and expenses, in addition to the overall balance, so that we can track and report on our income and expenses by those categories. Confusingly, these budget categories are often reported as funds, and that is the topic for today's newsletter.

Our major income categories include Dues, Rental Income, Hebrew School Tuition, Bingo, and several donation categories. Our major expense categories include Salary (Comp & Benefits), Temple Building Maintenance, Hebrew School (including payroll), Insurance, Office Supplies, etc. These categories are very useful for financial planning. When you see the annual budget at the membership meeting we report the Budget and the Actual for each of these categories. When Maria receives a contribution or writes a check, she always records the amount in at least one of the categories.

Temple Funds, such as the one's listed on the last page of the Bulletin either have an actual bank account, like those described in April, or have line items in QuickBooks associated with the Fund. A good example of that is the David Solomon Memorial Building Fund. Contributions to this fund are recorded in the Income part of our budget (as the D.Solomon Bldg.Fund line item under Operating Funds) and distributions are recorded in the Expenses category part of our budget (as the Total Temple Building Maintenance line item). From the bank's point of view it is all one checking account balance, but we do track income and expenses for each and every fund every year. In general, we can only provide individual fund balances for the few funds that have separate bank accounts.

I realize all this is pretty confusing, one of my goals as VP Finance this year is to simplify and make more transparent to all our Temple finances. This newsletter and April's is the beginning of that process. You can help by sending me or Maria your questions. I plan on publishing some of the Q & A's in a future Bulletin.

News from Hebrew School

Marcy Berger, Principal

marcy.berger@gmail.com

On April 22nd Beth David 6th to 12th graders participated in an interschool Holocaust Commemoration program called "Who is a Hero? Resistance to the Nazis." The program focused on the courageous acts of the Jewish partisans. The goal was to try to help students make personal connections to the brave acts of those fighters, the dilemmas they faced and what helped them resist the terrible oppression they faced so that students feel empowered to respond to the oppressions and injustices present in our time without feeling that they are "too big" to respond to. The program was based on the curriculum materials from the Jewish Partisan Educational Foundation. Three Beth David students-- Avi Presberg, Noah Meyers and Laura Rich-- had formal parts in the program and everyone had a chance to interact in discussion groups with students from other schools. The Principals' Council is grateful to the Jewish Federation for all the support that we received in running this program.

Mazel Tov, Bat Mitzvah!

Mira Phillips, daughter of Linda Phillips and Lee Sigelow will celebrate her Bat Mitzvah on June 2, 2012. Mira is a 6th grader at Bay Trail Middle School in Penfield. In addition to preparing for her Bat Mitzvah Mira takes dance lessons at Dance Connections and is on her school dance team. Mira also plays soccer for the Penfield Strikers and is heading into the height of her soccer season. She loves to sing and in addition to sing around the house and with on-line karaoke performs with her school's chorus and girls select chorus. Mira also loves spending time with her many friends and her sister, Tali. Mira has big plans for the future; she wants to be a divorce lawyer and then move on to being a judge. We wish Mira luck in fulfilling her dreams.

Mazel Tov, Bat Mitzvah!

Ariana Walker is completing 7th grade in June at Webster's Willink Middle School in where she excels in her classes. She represents her school on two sports teams playing second base on the softball team and she is also on the swimming team. Temple Beth David's June, 2012 Celebration and Learning

- ♦ Sivan - Reading Torah With Compassion
- ♦ Community and Connection: The B'not Mitzvah of Mira Phillips and Arianna Walker; the Rabbi Skopitz Memorial Concert; and our Kabbalat Shabbat Service and Veggie/Dairy Potluck Dinner at the JCC

Sivan (May 22 - June 20) is a month that brings us our festival of Shavuot - gratitude for the giving of the Torah, the gift of Torah and Torah study, blintzes and cheesecake. For our community, the month of June will be a time of rest and celebration.

Community and Connection: In Sivan and Tammuz, we will be blessed with two community celebrations: the Bat Mitzvah of Mira Phillips on June 2nd and of Arianna Walker on June 23rd. All are invited to share in the special days of these two special young people.

On June 10th, Temple will host the world famous a cappella group, CADENCE, who will be performing in memory and in honor of Rabbi Lawrence Skopitz at the Rabbi Skopitz Memorial Concert (see Flier for details and information on how to make reservations).

We will continue our fourth Friday of the month Kabbalat Shabbat and Veggie/Dairy Buffet at the JCC on June 22nd. This month, please bring a card listing the ingredients of your dish, along with your recipe. Next year we will put together a community cookbook honoring our wonderful chefs.

Shabbat Learning, June, 16th, after kiddush in the Small Sanctuary, we will look at Torah text and see how even some of its seemingly straight-forward verses possess depth and meaning beyond a surface reading. We will read Torah through the lens of compassion, and emerge with new insights and respect for its nuances and sensitivity. Rabbi Berg will facilitate our community learning and discussion.
