Pesach – The Redemptive Significance of Fifteen

Several years ago, we talked about the practical and mystical meaning of the number fifteen in our Passover Seders. I would like to focus your attention on the redemptive significance of the number fifteen once again as we approach this special time in our history, development as a people, and personal lives. Let us remember that during Pesach we have the potential to enter a new realm – to undertake a fifteen step spiritual journey through time and space – from enslavement and persecution, through liberation, and ultimately to redemption by a loving God. Focusing on the seven ways in which the number fifteen permeates our Seders may bring us closer to experiencing the Divine Presence in our lives.

What are these seven occurrences of the number fifteen in our Seder? (1) There are fifteen parts to the Seder. (2) We celebrate Passover on the fifteenth day of Nisan. (3) We praise God for the fifteen ascending favors (Ma'alot Tovot) God bestowed upon us when we join together to sing "Dayeinu."

(4) In the Torah scroll, Shirat ha-Yam (the Song of the Sea), which is sung by Moshe and the Israelites after God rescued them from the pursuing Egyptians (Exodus 15), is written as a poem in three vertical columns. The center column, which appears to be an ascending ladder, has fifteen steps.

(5) There were fifteen steps on the southern side of the Temple Mount that led up to the sacred Temple in Jerusalem. (6) There are fifteen psalms (Psalm 120-134) that begin with the words Shir HaMa'alot, "A Song of the Steps" that were sung by the Levites on the fifteen steps of the Temple. (An alternative interpretation of these psalms is found in the Babylonian Talmud (Tractate Pesachim 8a) -- According to Rabbi Yochanan, these fifteen psalms are to be recited as part of Hallel, the fourteenth "step" of our Seder.) There are fifteen words in the Priestly Blessing (Birkat Kohanim). And, in gematria, the system of equating Hebrew letters with their corresponding numbers, yud-heh, the first two letters of

The mission of Temple Beth David is to provide an environment where the concepts of community prayer, education, and service to the greater Jewish community are provided within the context of Conservative Judaism. We pride ourselves on being a friendly, participatory, egalitarian community, welcoming all to be a part of our synagogue family.

(and often shorthand for) God's name is 15 (yud = 10 and hey = 5).

By singing and enacting the fifteen steps of our Seders, we not only experience the entire Book of Exodus, we also connect ourselves to the fifteen steps the Israelites took during their celebration of Passover in Temple times. Coming to Jerusalem from all over the Land of Israel, the people would approach the Temple Mount. There, they would hear the Levites sing the fifteen psalms of praise to God -- one on each of the fifteen steps of the Temple; they would receive the Priestly Blessing by the specially adorned priests on those same stairs, and then would ascend those steps, bringing their offerings and gifts before God in, all of God's exaltedness. The fifteen steps, psalms, and words of blessing were meant to prepare the Israelites before they encountered God's awesomeness -- the Divine Presence dwelling in the cloud of aromatic incense enveloping the Temple.

As we prepare our minds to travel through sacred time, beginning with kadesh, (the sanctification of time), the first step of our Seder, through nirtzah, (acceptance) the fifteenth step of our Seder, we seek to come closer to God. We seek to establish a mutually-loving Divine-human relationship, this year in Rochester ... next year in Jerusalem.

Special Announcements

Mazel Tov to Gabriel Franklin on your Bar Mitzvah!

Gabriel Franklin is excited to become a Bar Mitzvah on March 2nd. Gabe is a 7th grader at Twelve Corners Middle School and lives with his parents, Merrie and Scott, and his two brothers, Max and Harry.

Gabe has boundless energy and especially enjoys basketball, baseball, Ultimate frisbee and playing marimba, timpani and snare drum with his school music groups and at the Eastman Community Music School.

Gabe considers himself extremely lucky to be instructed in Torah and Haftorah by his grandmother, Andrea Franklin from Columbus, Ohio, with whom he has spent countless hours on the phone in preparation. Mazel tov, Gabe!
