VOL. 60 Issue 4

July/August 2013

Operation: Into the Midst

commanded to run "into the midst."

As we are all aware, families in Oklahoma have been devastated by the tornadoes that have recently struck there. Young and old have been left without homes and basic needs.

With our own "Into the Midst" efforts, our goals as a congregation will be to get 100% participation from our incredible community here at Temple Beth David. We will also be extending this initiative to the community at large and are organizing a trip to Oklahoma this summer for hands-on help in rebuilding communities like our own.

Join Temple Beth David in an urgent effort to collect funds for Nechama.org, an amazing organization dedicated to disaster relief.

From Parashat Korah, we learned that after three destructive forces sent to destroy the Israelites, Moses ordered Aaron to run "Into the Midst" of the congregation where a plague had begun among the people. Aaron then stood between the dead and the living until the plague ended. (Numbers 17:12)

From this we learn how important and how necessary it is for us to be active participants in helping in crises. Whether through donations or physically going to the affected areas in need of support we are all

The funds we raise will be sent to Nechama.org as a community. A congregant volunteer will contact you soon to see how you would like to contribute.

We are handicapped accessible and equipped with a hearing loop.

The mission of Temple Beth David is to provide an environment where the concepts of community prayer, education, and service to the greater Jewish community are provided within the context of Conservative Judaism. We pride ourselves on being a friendly, participatory, egalitarian community, welcoming all to be a part of our synagogue family.

News from the President

Helen Kashtan hkashtan@frontiernet.net

Temple Beth David celebrated its 60th anniversary on June 9, with special brunch that featured entertainment by children of the congregation! We had vocal, string, dance and juggling performances by children 8 to 18.

Thank you to everyone who helped prepare for this special day: The festive brunch was prepared by Judy Levy, Lori Davis, Maxine Manjos, Scott Davis, Gary Cohen, Susan Meynadasy and Helen Kashtan. Archival exhibits were prepared by Alison Helms. Event set up was provided by Ed Drexler and Bill Fowlkes, with support from Brandon Davis. Thanks also to Melanie Stormm-David and Bill Scheuermann for their efforts!

Additionally, we are in need of help with volunteers for making phone calls and keeping the congregation informed.

If you are interested in volunteering or in traveling to Oklahoma to help in the affected areas, be sure to contact the Temple Office or speak with me to sign up.

The deadline for donations is August 1st. You can mail your check directly to the office.

May we all continue to be inspired by the words of Torah. Kayn Yehi Ratzon, May it be God's will that the people of Oklahoma feel the support of volunteers around them and see a rebuilding in their midst.

Thank you for your Support!

Mazel Tov to Sarah Eckhaus on your Bat Mitzvah!

Sarah Eckhaus is excited to become a Bat Mitzvah on August 17th. She shares a birthday with her father and will share the same Torah portion, too. Sarah is an honor roll student at School of the Arts and will begin 8th grade in September. She is a Visual Arts major and really enjoys science class. Sarah lives with her parents, Sue and Neal, and siblings, Jacob and Hannah.

Sarah takes horse riding lessons every week and spends as much time as she can at the stable. She is a true animal lover and has spent lots of time with the many animals from Lollypop Farm that her family has fostered during the last 4 years. She is a voracious reader and has yet to meet a book she does not like. Her parents are very proud of her and of the care and empathy she gives to others.

Mazel Tov also on the B'nai Mitzvah of Olivia Meynadasy, Nick Wasserman,
& Juliet Lande

VP of Finance, Bill Fowlkes fixing his plate with the delicious spread

Administration News:

Judy Levy, VP of Administration jlevy29@rochester.rr.com

In the first half of this year, Melanie, Bill Fowlkes, Lisa Worden and I have had several meetings on improving the efficiency of the Temple office. This has been done by identifying problem areas and researching solutions. Several of these solutions have been put in place already while others are in progress. During this time, Melanie created a spread sheet delineating all of the duties of the office manager and how many of them interrelate. The end product of this “chart” that Melanie created is mind boggling!

One of the most time consuming tasks is the Temple bulletin. The timeline for the bulletin is very sensitive. It is very important that articles or information being submitted for inclusion in the bulletin are sent to Melanie by the deadline (before the deadline date would be even better!).

Once all the information is received, the bulletin must be formatted, printed and be ready for our wonderful volunteer “assembly and folding” committee before it can be sent out. Printing needs several days, because our printer cannot handle printing the entire job in one day. It is even better if an extra day can be built in case the printer breaks down and has to be serviced (believe it or not this is not uncommon).

If information for the bulletin is not submitted on time, this cuts into the rest of the process and many times the assembly committee has to be rescheduled. Melanie also has to spend her precious time tracking down people and information. This can be very frustrating for everyone.

Now that the bulletin only comes out every other month, I ask that you please be conscious of this process and submit any information by the deadline. The bulletin deadlines will begin to be posted in the Weekly News starting 2 weeks before each deadline. If information is not submitted by this date, it will not appear in the bulletin. Also, beware, if a very thin bulletin comes in the mail and you wonder why there is so little information, you will know that Melanie included all that was given to her no matter how little.

In addition I would like to congratulate Melanie for completing her first year at Temple Beth David. She has made some very positive changes in the office and continues to work on improving the office every day.
